

Teacher's Charles R. Drew Timeline

In the chart below, document what you know and what you learn today about the time period in which Charles Drew lived. The primary and secondary source materials provided for you about Drew will help us understand both Drew and the time and place in which he lived.

Timeline by Decade	Charles R. Drew Biography	Relevant Primary Sources	HISTORICAL CONTEXT
1904-1919	Childhood 4 siblings DC	Photos of siblings, football and basketball teams Letter from HS coach	World War I Segregation in the U.S.
1920s	Amherst College Instructor at Morgan State McGill Medical school	Letter from college coach AC Graduation photograph	Prohibition Segregation in the U.S.
1930s	McGill Medical school graduation Residency in Montreal General Hospital Instructor at Howard University Marriage in 1939	Drew as Lifeguard Drew with MGH staff New Year's letter excerpt Letters to Lenore	Great Depression Segregation in the U.S.
1940s	Growing family – daughters & son PhD from Columbia Blood for Britain project Work for blood bank Professorship at Howard U. NAACP's Spingarn Medal	Family portraits with Lenore and daughters and son Drew in the lab Leffall oral history Drew with first mobile blood unit	World War II Segregation in the U.S.