Why was Pop so interested to visit the Black history sites in Boston.

I always knew he was ~~interested~~ ^{unexpressed} ~~in~~ ^{convinced} Black hist part didn't really know the dept of his ^{interest} until after he had passed.

One day as the family was perusing the books ~~at~~ desk pigeon holes in his library ^{or he called it} his "Study" an interesting document was found. It has obviously been typed by his Aunt & peck system by which he wrote outlines of his sermon: This Random Sheet was titled "My Challenge"

It described his determination as a young child to vindicate the lack of his father's faith of his father & other Blacks in the Civil War.
