of family festivities with all of the children gathering in New York and gifts from every creed, race and color from around the world.

True to the original program as Mrs. Aikens told the story, each of Mother Berry's (as she is affectionately called) children came forward.. first, Dr. Leonidas Berry who is Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine at the University of Illinois . . . he is also Research Authority and Specialist in Digestive Diseases.

Then there is Richard Berry . . . who is Organization and Methods Examiner of the to Rev. when Reverend B pastor at Emmanuel Church in that City and Mrs. Henrietta Sawyer of New Jersey.

Simultaneously with the Conference here and at St. Louis, the National Ministers Wives were considering her candidacy for National "Minister's Wife of 1957," her name being submitted by the Abatenjwa, the Interdenominational Minister's Wives Group.

Mrs. Berry is a Doctor of Humanities, having received the Degree from Wilberforce Institute, Monrovia, Liberia and at one time she was a Grand Matron of the Eastern Stars.

At the close of the program a scrap book filled with memorable events was presented and will be treasured by Mrs. Berry.

The Young Peoples Department of the Michigan State Missionary Society presented her with a charm bracelet . . . each charm inscribed with the name of one of her children.
