Dear friends:-

Your letter arrived today and, because time is somewhat short, I hasten to reply.

I want you and Sam to know that I am deeply touched, and extremely honored, that you should offer to me the privilege of presenting to you the coveted Schindler Award. I accept with great pleasure and will make the presentation in whichever way you most desire.

I will greatly appreciate your finding to me a curriculum vitae and bibliography and whatever you would wish me to include in the presentation speech in the nature of biography and anecdotes of interest. I will then put them together in a "presentation" or "introduction" and submit to you for approval.

Again, please accept my nice expression of gratitude.
With kindest personal regards to you & Sam.

Sincerely,

Aug
