Dear Lemidas :-

Have received no reply to my letter of 23 February so am once again at your doorstep - in case my letter, or yours, may have strayed in the mail.

As mentioned, I have received and studied your C.V. and, importantly, I would wish from you an idea of which <sup>POINTS</sup> you would especially wish me to stress, and to embellish upon, in my introduction of you. Also, as I mentioned too, any pertinent anecdotes would be greatly desired - as well as the 2"x2" slides which you described.

I would very much to make this a superb presentation, Lemidas, because you are very deserving of this. Especially, I would the presentation to be made as you would desire it to be.

Please reply at your earliest convenience.
Love to Sam.
Sincerely, [Signature]
