My dear "George":

I am writing to you at this time to express my belated appreciation for receiving a copy of your paper for such a long time. I always find time to at least glance through the paper because it reminds me of our longstanding friendship and indicates that you are still pioneering and doing a good job after so many years.

I have had my ups and downs since I last saw you with illnesses and otherwise. As you know I worked very hard in the profession for quite a number of years between the time when I first met you and your departure to Alaska. I am afraid that some of that hard work has been catching up with me.

In addition to saying hello this letter comes to congratulate you and to wish you Godspeed in the fine work which you are doing.

I have just looked at an issue of your paper and chanced to observe that an old French professor and long acquaintance and friend of my family has moved to your town to take over the First AME Church. I have reference to the Rev. & Mrs. A. J. White. They should do a good job there and I think that you and "Prof. White" should make a good team. Give my very best regards to them.

Sincerely yours,

Leonidas H. Berry, M.D.
