Dear Dr. Vinnavatti:

It has been nearly 10 years since we met in Tokyo at the World Congress. I remember our visits with each other, the discussions of things in Thailand and the United States.

Enclosed is a brochure of a book which is just off the press and of which I am the senior author and editor. I thought that you might be interested in seeing it. In case you are, we have enclosed an order slip for your use. By the way, I have met several students from Thailand at Cook County Hospital who either knew you or knew of you.

I hope that you and family are well and with very best wishes until we chance to ^{meet} at some future date, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Leonidas H. Berry, M.D.
