Dear Doctor Berry:

I regret that our files produce very little on primitive medicine and still less on statistical figures for negro physicians. I am sending you, however, under separate cover two pamphlets, two reprints and five journals.

The Central African Journal of Medicine has a series entitled "Bygones of a Bundu Bone Thrower" which may provide you with some interesting material. I should think the "Journal of the National Medical Association" or the Association itself would be able to supply you with the statistics which you need.

This material is on loan to you for two weeks. If you should need to retain it longer, please call or write for renewal.

Hoping that this may be of use to you, I am

Cordially yours,

Kathleen Worst
